Syrill was born in Cameroon and started playing soccer at a very young age. At the age of 16, he was discovered by the U-18 National Team Coach, where they won a tournament in France and kicked off Syrill's professional career.

Syrill's first club was in Cameroon playing for TKC (Tonnerre Kalara Club), before stops in Zamalek in Egypt, FC Sion in Switzerland, Sydney FC in Australia, BEC TERO FC in Thailand & Ubon Tiger FC second division in the North-East of Thailand.

At the end of his playing career in 2012, Syrill became a teacher in Thailand, where he also started coaching soccer. "I started enjoying coaching the kids, It went very well and I have been doing it for the past 11 years, with the U-14, U-16, and U-18, winning competitions with all the groups, making the players happy, seeing the growth, that's why I enjoy coaching."
